

Deaf Day in Rome

October 17, 2026

Pleasant Valley North Baptist Church
735 Old Summerville Rd NW, Rome, GA

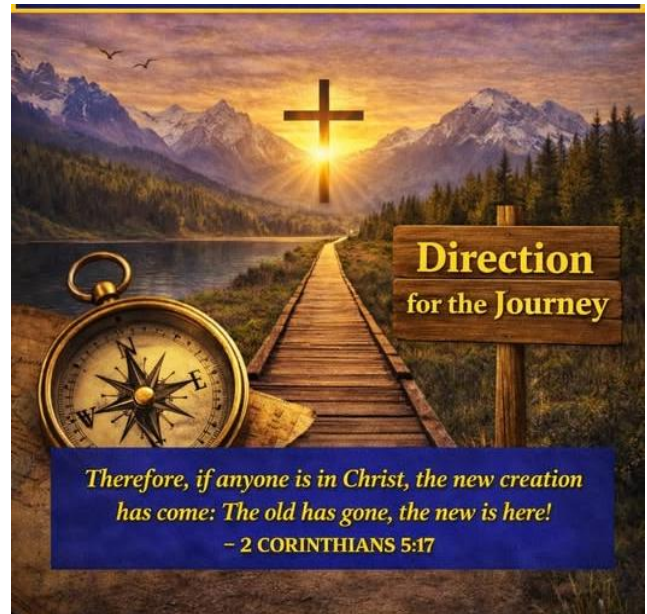

Doors open at 8:00 am and program begins at 9:00 am.

Featured Speaker:

Stephen Newell, Tenn

Stephen is a deaf pastor. He will speak at the opening and closing session of our day.

Stephen has been involved in deaf ministry for 28 years and has been a deaf pastor for 20 years. He graduated from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville, KY. He is married and he and his wife have four children.

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!
- 2 CORINTHIANS 5:17

Workshops

- ASL 101 – led by Debbie Ziegler (for anyone)
- Worship Music in ASL – led by Hayden Daum
- New Followers Journey with Jesus – led by Laramie Burris
- Progressing in Your Journey with Jesus – led by (to be determined)

Morning coffee and light refreshments will be served between 8:00 and 9:00 am.

Lunch: Taco bar with choice of chicken, beef, or fajita vegetables and all the trimmings
Lunch is included with your registration if you register before Oct. 10.

Children from birth through age 11 will have activities for their age level with Dawn Cagasan and her team of deaf and hearing workers. Children attend free but must be registered for us to plan for their participation.

Youth ages 12-17 will be led by Emily Burris in Bible study and discussion, as well as games and entertaining activities. They will join with adults in the opening and closing worship sessions.

Group Photo will be right after lunch. Everyone get in the picture!!

Sponsored by Georgia Baptist Conference of the Deaf
and Pleasant Valley North Baptist Church